

Isn't it amazing that XM does a much better job at delivering the real time traffic reports than the local stations, and whose complaining about the competition? Please keep the market open and free.
Thank you.